Okyeame Kwame is a celebrated musician whose creativity has pierced the walls of music, drama, rap, acting and entrepreneurship in Ghana.

He was nominated 5 times at the Channel O Music Awards in 2009 and participated in the MTV Base 'Making The Video' in 2008.

Okyeame Kwame is the Creative Director and Owner of One Mic Entertainment, a record label. He also owns a communications company (Firm Bridges Communications) that has worked for companies like MTN, Coca-Cola and MDS Lancet Laboratories. His company strategizes, builds commercials, as well as handles both below and above the line communications for its clients.

Okyeame Kwame and other five members were appointed by the Attorney General's office to serve as Receiver Managers to conduct the first general elections for Ghana Music Rights Organization (GHAMRO). He is one of two hip-life musicians in Ghana whose poetry and music is studied in universities in Ghana. He is also the first Ghanaian hip-life artist to own a blog which runs consistently with subjects relevant to the intellectual development of readers.

A graduate of the Kwame Nkrumah University of Science & Technology and currently an MA student at the University of Ghana, Legon; Okyeame Kwame is pursuing Masters in Marketing Strategy. Okyeame Kwame was the first artiste in Ghana to stage his own show; fusing intelligent drama, exciting music and electrifying dance on one stage. He is a happy husband, proud father and enigmatic entertainer. Okyeame Kwame has served as the PRO for the Music union of Ghana and is among ETV Ghana's 100 most influential personalities in Ghana.

He is a family man with strong values. His diligence and skill in art won him the most coveted award in the music industry, during the Ghana music awards in 2009, Artiste of the year. In that same year, he won the Artiste of the year at Joy Fm Nite with The Starz. He has recently, in 2015, won the MOGO (Music of Ghanaian Origin) artiste of the year as well as other prestigious awards. He has been unveiled as the brand ambassador for junior boys and has been given the awesome father award for being a great role model to fathers and young boys.

QUOTES FROM PROFESSIONALS INTERESTED IN ENTERTAINMENT

EARL ANKRAH – A famous and respected TV personality, who has worked with the likes of Shaka Ssali and interviewed Rev Jesse Jackson, currently the PRO for Fair Wages, Ghana, after the Okyeame Kwame Versatile Show wrote; “Until recently, OK was another beneficiary of Rockstone’s unmatched ingenuity. Tonight, 14th Dec, OK snapped off his umbilical cord and became the parent of a yet to be labeled genre in the arts; critics scratch their heads over which category to ‘box’ it...inappropriately. News editors caution: This is not ‘entertainment news’, this is ‘Main News’.”

FRANKLIN CUDJOE: CEO & Founder of Imani Ghana - Think Tank: “Okyeame Kwame aka Rap Doctor is the KING of art in Ghana! This gem of artist has pulled off the most brilliant comedy show in recent times”.

BOLA RAY – CEO of EIB Group of Companies and the most consistent drive time presenter of all time in Ghana (10 years at joyfm) ; “Okyeame Kwame is the best rapper in the whole of Ghana and I believe that if Okyeame’s music is heard across Africa and the world, all will share my sentiment.”

GEORGE ANDAH – Former Chief Marketing Officer, MTN Ghana wrote “Just when you don’t know what to expect, Okyeame shocks you again with his incredible art. The Versatile show is great. Okyeame is simply the best!”

BRANDS HE HAS REPRESENTED

He has graduated from KNUST as a linguist. In 2010, he graduated from KNUST as the most behaved student on campus

He was the PRO for Ghana Association of Music Rights Owners. As a part of the executives, the group appointed by the courts were the first to organize elections for the association since its inception, 21 years ago.

He has been the brand ambassador for companies like MTN, Coca-Cola, GTBank, MDS-Lancet Laboratories, where he spoke on behalf of the brands.

He is the AU Champion from Ghana, for my Africa My Voice campaign.

As an ambassador for Health, he has, for over 6 years, created great awareness for Hepatitis in the country and has screened over 7000 patients and vaccinated over 1500 people all through his advocacy. He has conducted over 20 clinics around the country to sensitize Ghana about Hepatitis

SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

Previous free screening exercise and the Ghana National Paralympics fund raising aid

Currently the Ghana Health Ambassador, Okyeame Kwame has for over 6 years now embarked on philanthropic activities; founding the Okyeame Kwame Foundation, a non-governmental organization to administer free Hepatitis B screening and vaccination, education, counselling and creating awareness. In partnership with MDS-Lancet Laboratories, one of the highest ISO accredited labs in Africa, and a group of competent doctors, Okyeame Kwame is sensitizing the public using entertainment and scientific facts.

On three occasions he has done free Hepatitis Screening for the students of Kwame Nkrumah University of Science & Technology (KNUST)

Okyeame Kwame received an honorary award from world bank for positive music and for embarking on the hepatitis developmental project.

In collaboration with the Tamale Chief, the Foundation has subsequently acquired a land to build a hepatitis B Research Center at Tamale where the prevalence rate is very high, to help eventually eradicate hepatitis B from the country.

This project is approved and supported by the Ministry of Health. The initiative has been labelled as a core base in the effort of the ministry in tackling Hepatitis in Ghana.

Recently the Foundation went to the aid of Ghana National Paralympics Team to raise funds for the desert challenging qualifiers in the U.S.A
